VIBRANT COLOURS OF THE WINTER OF TIGPS, NABAGRAM, KONNAGAR CAMPUS

Winter flowers are like nature's artists in the cold canvas of winter. They're not just pretty; they're life savers for our gardens! When everything else looks dull and asleep, these flowers pop up with vibrant colors, adding a touch of cheer and vitality.

When the weather outside is cold and frightful, nothing is more delightful than a garden adorned with winter-blooming plants. Surprisingly, many types of flowering annuals, perennials, and shrubs are at their best during the coldest time of the year, bringing color and interest to the garden when we need it most.
